

SCAAHE Annual Report

Submitted by Jacqlyn Atkins, SCAAHE President 2016/17

SCAAHE Board Meetings held on February 22, 2017, April 17, 2017, June 19, 2017, and August 30, 2017, and October 30, 2017. Our Annual Business Meeting will be held on Saturday, November 11, 2017.

Awards: SCAAHE will recognize Tine Marie Devlin as Health Education Professional of the Year and Dr. Shelley Hamill and the Health and Safety Education Standards Review committee for their Outstanding Contribution to Health Education.

CHES/MCHES Continuing Education: SCAAHE continues to promote CHES/MCHES through the provision of CHES/MCHES Study Sessions and by offering CHES/MCHES CECH at the Annual Conference. The 2017 conference is projected to offer up to 19 total credit hours.

Constitutions & Bylaws: No changes made this year. Will be a focus in the up-coming year.

Advocacy: Advocacy Committee Chair, Beth Barry represented SCAAHE on the SCAHPERD Advocacy Committee. In addition, Beth provided timely and relevant advocacy updates to SCAAHE members throughout the year.

Membership: SCAAHE Leaders continue to promote SCAAHE membership through personal and professional contacts. SCAAHE has worked hard to increase its' social media presence in an effort to increase awareness and membership.

Nominations: The Nominations Committee has identified at least 4 candidates for the open positions of member at large (2 vacancies), and president-elect. Voting will take place at the SCAAHE business meeting planned for Saturday, November 11th from 12:15-1:45pm.

Program: Erica Ayers worked with the SCAHPERD Conference Committee and staff to plan a diverse array of sixteen conference sessions for the 2017 SCAHPERD Conference.

Publicity: Dave Brangan and Lillie Hall coordinated efforts to increase social media presence. SCAAHE has a new Facebook page and a new twitter account is forthcoming.

SCAAHE continues to seek ways to collaborate with the SCPHA Health Education Section to engage health educators across the state and
